EDITOR'S NOTE.

Another new song-book? Will their steady issue never cease? Yes, when trees stop putting forth fresh leaves, and the meadows are satisfied with last year's daisies and clover-bloom; when poets satisfy their hearts by copying the lines of the singers of the past, and orators express their swelling passion by rehearsing Demosthenes, Cicero, Burke, or Webster; when a study of the lives of heroes and saints satisfies the holy ambition of devout souls; then, and not until then, will the tide of song find its ebb. When the church stops singing new songs it will be a dead not a living church. Our simple songs are not immortal, and we do not wish them to be. When they have done their work they will pass away and be forgotten like their authors. It is not always the immortal that is most useful.

We have tried in this collection of songs to serve the Sunday-schools of the living present, and if this modest ambition is realized, we shall be satisfied.

The Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Gloria Patri.

GREGORIAN.

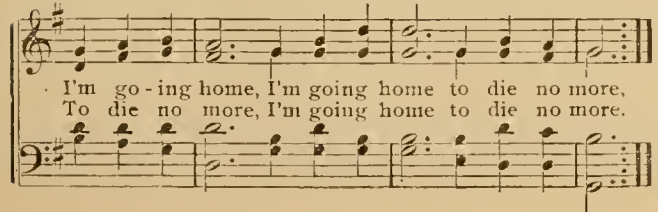
2. My Father's house is built on high; Far, far a - bove the star - ry sky;
   When, from this earthly prison free, That heav'nly mansion mine shall be.

I'm going home,
To die no more,



3 Let others seek a home below,
Which flames devour, or waves o'erflow,
Be mine a happier lot to own
A heavenly mansion near the throne.

4 Then fail this earth, let stars decline,
And sun and moon refuse to shine,
All nature sink and cease to be,
That heavenly mansion stands for me.

166. Responsive Opening Service.

Arranged by Rev. I. Baltzell.

Supt.—Surely he hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows.

Response by the School.—Yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God and afflicted.

Supt.—But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities.

Response.—The chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

Supt.—All we, like sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way.

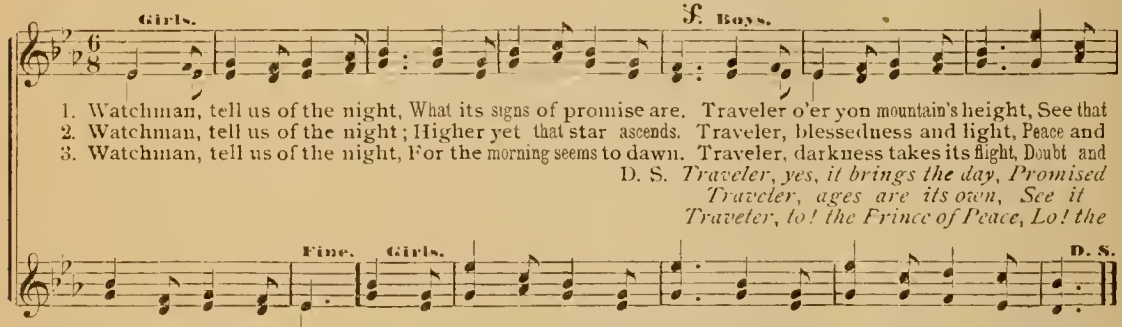
Response.—And the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Supt.—And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Response.—He shall see the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

Supt.—Watchman, what of the night?

Response.—The morning cometh!



Supt.—Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into morning.

Response.—Until the day break, and the shadows flee away.

Supt.—Unto you that fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings.

Response.—Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

167. Opening Exercise.

Arranged by Prof. E. L. Shuey.

CONSECRATION.

Song No. 165.

Supt.—Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust: whose strength is in thee; that trusteth in thee, O Lord of hosts.

First Half of School.—Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

Second Half of School.—Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his way.

Supt.—Shew me thy ways, O Lord, teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

First Half of School.—Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; incline my heart unto thy testimonies and not to covetousness. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

Second Half of School.—Let my cry come near before thee, O Lord; give me understanding according to thy word. My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

Supt.—Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth; unite my heart to fear thy name.

First Half of School.—Uphold me with thy free spirit; then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Second Half of School.—Make me to understand the ways of thy precepts; so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

Supt.—Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.

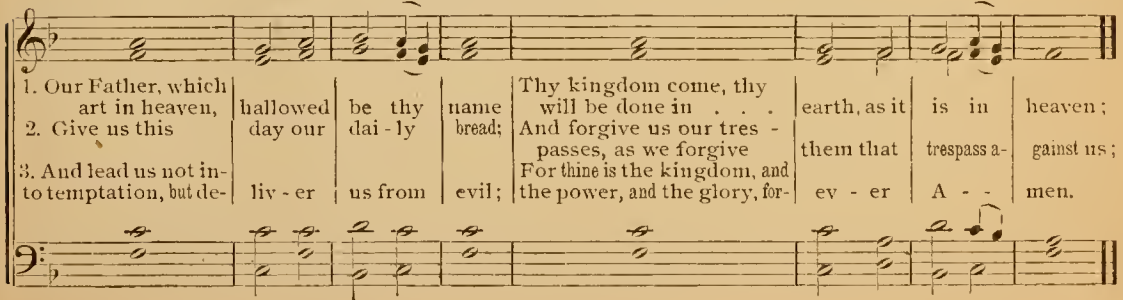
Teachers.—Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God, praise the Lord, for the Lord is good.

Scholars.—Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; they will still be praising thee.

All.—Call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable.

Chant.—The Lord's Prayer.

168. The Lord's Prayer. Chant.



169. Opening Exercise.

Prepared by MARION LAWRENCE.

PASTOR. (All rise.)—In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

SCHOOL OR CHOIR.

RESPONSE.

SUPT.—Stand up and bless the Lord your God. Sing forth the honor of his name.

(ALL STAND.)

(ITALIAN HYMN. No. 125.)

Come, thou Almighty King,
Help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise;
Father all-glorious!
O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us,
Ancient of days.

PASTOR.—Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly,

TEACHERS.—Nor standeth in the way of sinners,

SCHOOL.—Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

PASTOR.—But his delight is in the law of the Lord;

SCHOOL.—And in his law doth he meditate day and night.

PASTOR.—And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water,

SCHOOL.—That bringeth forth fruit in his season.

PASTOR.—His leaf also shall not wither;

SCHOOL.—And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

PASTOR.—The ungodly are not so:

SCHOOL.—But are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

PASTOR.—Therefore, the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

SCHOOL.—For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PASTOR.—Behold how good and how pleasant it is * * * to dwell together in unity.

(DENNIS. No. 71.)

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love:
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

ASST. SUPT.—Blessed be the people that know the joyful sound.

SCHOOL.—They shall walk, O Lord! in the light of thy countenance.

ASST. SUPT.—In thy name shall they rejoice all the day,

SCHOOL.—And in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

SUPT.—For the Lord is our defense, and the Holy One of Israel is our King.

ALL.—Blessed be the Lord forevermore! Amen, and Amen.

(CORONATION. No. 59.)

All hail the power of Jesus' name,
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

PASTOR.—Let us worship and bow down. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving.

(INVOCATION.)

170. Closing Exercise.

Arranged by I. Baltzell.

STAND DURING THE EXERCISE.

Supt.—Sanctify them, O Lord, by thy truth.

School.—Thy word is truth.

Supt.—The Lord bless thee, and preserve thee.

School.—The Lord watch between me and thee when we are absent one from the other.

Horton. 7s.

Holy Father, holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three in One,
Glory, as of old, to thee
Now and evermore shall be.

ALL REPEAT IN CONCERT THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

171. Closing Exercise.

Arranged by E. D. Mund.

Supt.—Fear God and give glory to him; worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountain of waters.

School.—Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy.

Supt.—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

School.—Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

Supt.—The Lord bless thee and keep thee.

School.—The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee.

Supt.—The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

All sing.

Tune.—Old Hundred, No. 7.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
